Description

Schaumburg School District 54 offers programming for Deaf and Hard of Hearing students at The early Learning Center (early childhood), Blackwell Elementary School (kindergarten through 6th grade) and Addams Junior High School (7th through 8th grade). District 54 offers a variety of educational program settings including: self-contained classrooms, resource support within the general education classroom, full mainstreaming in the general education classroom with an interpreter, and itinerant services throughout the district. The range of services provided is fluid each year in order to meet the needs and accommodations of our current students. We also serve District 15 Deaf and Hard of Hearing students who do not currently attend their base school.
